Matoaca Citizens Hold Meeting to Secure a Bridge Across Appointation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., April 11.-L. W. Allen, captain of a barge now in the har cabin, this morning, fully dressed and presenting the appearance of sleep.

Captain Allen was alone on the boat and evidently died while sitting at the

One arm and leg were resting on the table, his pipe having fallen to the floor. The body was viewed by the coroner The body was viewed by the coroner, who deemed an inquest unnecessary, the man evidently having died from natural causes some time during the night. The dead man is supposed to be from Richmond. A letter of recommendation from Richmond was found on his person. The barge of which he was in churge is owned by a Mr. Harrison, of Richmond, and is laden with peanut shells consigned from Smithfield to Petersburg.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

from Smithfield to Petersburg.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board of Aldermen last evening unanimously refused to concur in the resolution of the Council abolishing the Purchasing Committee, as it considered the services of the committee of very considerable value. The Board concurred in the Council's changes in the license tax ordinance and appropriated one thousand dollars to remove forty-five hundred yards of sand from the harbor.

Maloaca is anxious to have a bridge

Maloaca is anxious to have a bridge built across the Appoinantox River at that point, and about two hundred and fifty clitzens of that place held an entusiastic mass meeting last night to start the enterprise. Captain J. W. Blankenship called the meeting to order, and Rev. J. W. Eure was made chairman. A committee of sixteen was appointed to urge the matter at the next meeting of the board of supervisors of Chesterfield county. Mr. Charles T. Lassiter addressed the meeting in behalf of good roads.

ness for me.

The said Charles Rose will conduct the said business under the old name of John H. Rose & Co., and will assume all the debts and obligations of the said business from this date.

For forty years I have conducted the said business, meeting promptly all of my obligations, and in retiring I wish to thank my patrons and the public for their generous support, and to commend to them my son, who is in every way competent to conduct the said business, and is possessed of sufficient capital and means to discharge and pay off all obligations of the said business now due, or that may hereafter become due.

Respectfully, JOF H. ROSE.
